

NAEYC Accreditation Road Trip: An Overview of the New NAEYC Accreditation System

In 2006, the National Association for the Education of Young Children (NAEYC) launched its updated accreditation system. This workshop is the first of several offerings this year provided by the Connecticut Accreditation Facilitation Project (AFP) in an effort to support continuous quality improvement through the NAEYC accreditation process. Educators seeking accreditation or re-accreditation will find this workshop helpful to their understanding of the new requirements of the system and the steps of the NAEYC accreditation process.

Participants in this professional development activity will:

- gain an understanding of NAEYC's new program standards and accreditation processes and procedures;
- learn about new self-study materials, steps, and requirements for successful accreditation; and
- learn about local and national resources to support programs engaged in the NAEYC accreditation process.
