

17th Annual New England Conference on Multicultural Education (NECME)

Welte Auditorium

Central Connecticut State University,
New Britain, CT,

Thurs. Oct. 18, 2012

8:30-4:00 pm

Admission is free but you must register at www.necme.org

Jacqueline
Jordan
Irvine

Keynote
Speaker
Charles Howard

Candler Professor Emeritus of Urban Education in the Division of Educational Studies at Emory University.

“Using Culturally Responsive Teaching to Close the Achievement Gap: Theoretical Perspectives and Practical Applications”

Christine Sleeter

Keynote
Speaker
Professor Emerita in the College of

Professional Studies at California
State University Monterey Bay,
President of the National Association for Multicultural Education.

“Yes, even Chemistry!
Adapting your Curriculum and Teaching Methods for Multicultural Education.”

Lee Mun Wah

Keynote Speaker
Lee Mun Wah is an internationally renowned Chinese American documentary
filmmaker, author,

poet, Asian folk teller, educator, community therapist and master
diversity trainer

“The World Is All Around Us-Creating a Culturally Responsive Classroom.”

Students, teachers, parents, high education faculty, community activists, administrators, legislators and others interested in educational equity and social justice are welcome to attend.

The New England Conference on Multicultural Education (NECME) is sponsored by

The State of Connecticut Department of Education is committed to a policy of equal opportunity/affirmative action for all qualified persons. The Department of Education does not discriminate in any employment practice, education program, or educational activity on the basis of race, color, religious creed, sex, age, national origin, ancestry, marital status, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, disability (including, but not limited to, intellectual disability, past or present history of mental disorder, physical disability or learning disability), genetic information, or any other basis prohibited by Connecticut state and/or federal nondiscrimination laws. The Department of Education does not unlawfully discriminate in employment and licensing against qualified persons with a prior criminal conviction. Inquiries regarding the Department of Education's nondiscrimination policies should be directed to: Levy Gillespie, Equal Employment Opportunity Director/American with Disabilities Act Coordinator, State of Connecticut Department of Education, 25 Industrial Park Road, Middletown, CT 06457, 860-807-2101, Levy.Gillespie@ct.gov