

Connecticut Regulations Section 10-145d-401 requires anyone employed by a local public school district that is not directly supervised in the delivery of instructional services to have appropriate state certification.

Appropriate certification is required for any person in the employ of a board of education who:

- (1) Is not directly supervised in the delivery of instructional services by a certified professional employee in a position requiring certification; or,
- (2) Is responsible for planning of the instructional program for a student; or,
- (3) Evaluates student progress; or,
- (4) Does not receive specific directions from their supervising teacher or administrator that constitutes a lesson plan for each lesson.
