

32nd National Conference on the Training and Employment of Paraeducators

THE POWER OF PARAEDUCATORS: A PATHWAY TO EXCELLENCE

SAVE THE DATES!

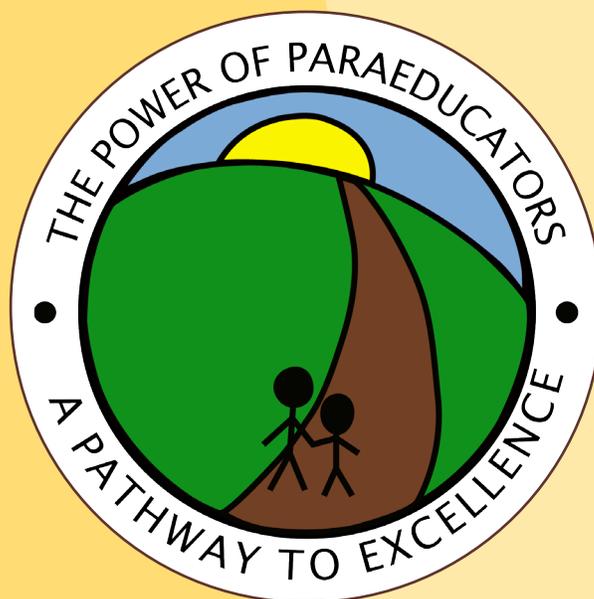

April 16–18, 2015

Hilton Hartford Hotel
Hartford, CT

Mark your calendars for the 32nd National Conference on the Training and Employment of Paraeducators, sponsored by the National Resource Center for Paraeducators (NRCP). The 2015 conference theme is “The Power of the Paraeducator: A Pathway to Excellence.”

Don't miss this opportunity to:

- meet and network with paraeducators, teachers and administrators from other school districts, states and countries; and
- attend diverse workshops covering literacy and math common core, small group instruction, ELL, supervision, writing, proactive behavior management, autism, strategies for students with significant cognitive disabilities, MTSS (Multi-Tiered Systems of Student Support), and more.

For more information, contact:

Iris White: 860-713-6794, Marilyn Likins: 801-272-1091 ext. 221, or Connie Beck: 435-797-7272