

Paraprofessional Overview of the Connecticut Accountability for Learning Initiative (CALI) Certification Module

The purpose of this two-day certification training is to build the knowledge and skills of educators who provide professional development to paraprofessionals. Participants at this certification training will increase their understanding of how paraprofessionals can be an integral part of school improvement efforts, and be certified to deliver basic training in their school and/or district. Participation in the Paraprofessional Module Basic is a prerequisite to attend this session.

This one day training will be available on the following date: 8:00 a.m-4:00 p.m.:
November 17th and 18th, 2009 at CREC, Hartford.

Registration is available on the CALI website: www.sdecali.net

For additional information, please contact:

Iris White

Associate Education Consultant, Bureau of School and District Improvement

Connecticut State Department of Education

(860) 713-6564

Iris.white@ct.gov

Cost:

Free for Title I schools identified as being in need of improvement and schools in Priority School Districts.

Schools who are not eligible for free training can register participants for a fee of $85.00 per day.

The goal of the Connecticut Accountability for Learning Initiative (CALI) is to develop and offer a model of state support to districts and schools to support the process of continuous school and district improvement and to accelerate the closing of Connecticut's achievement gaps.