

Teach in Connecticut

You can't beat the combination!

Connecticut is tops in educational quality and teaching environment...

- $ High Teacher Salaries (#1 in U.S. in 2000; projected average M.A.+30: $66,140)
- Quality K-12 Schools (see National Assessment of Educational Progress)
- Quality Universities (see Measuring Up 2000: The State-by-State Report Card)
- Quality Teachers (see Quality Counts 2000: Who Should Teach? State of the States)
- Low Class Size (Kindergarten average: 18.6; 5th Grade: 21.5; High School: 19.9)

Anywhere in Connecticut, you're close to...

- * Beautiful Four-Season Scenery (<http://www.state.ct.us/ecd/Tourism/index.htm>)
- * Ocean Beaches and Long Island Sound
- * Summers at Tanglewood or Bar Harbor
- * Boston, Newport, Hartford, and New York City
- * Vermont Ski Slopes and New Hampshire Hiking
- * Great concerts, theater, museums, Broadway, jazz... you name it!

So, whether you are...

- single (check out our student loan forgiveness program),
  - a young parent (home mortgage assistance offered in 26 districts), or
  - just looking for a better place to live and teach...

Connecticut is a great choice!

Why wait?
