School Area Eligibility Data for "At-Risk" After-School Snack Program

Attached for your information is the current list of area eligible schools for the "At Risk" After-School Snack Program. This list includes schools where 50% or more of the enrolled children are eligible for free or reduced price meals in the National School Lunch Program in the month of October 2003. The new school data is effective February 1, 2004 and would impact:

- Programs initiating the after school snack program; and
- The re-determination of programs whose current eligibility was based on October 2000 school data distributed in 2001.

The new list is based on school data from the month of October 2003 and reflects the following information:

1. All of the elementary schools in the following towns are at or above the 50% threshold: Bridgeport, and Hartford. Any program operating an after-school snack program site in either one of those cities would be area eligible.
2. The following towns and/or schools have been added to the list since last year:

Town	School(s)
Ansonia	Mead School
Bloomfield	J.P. Vincent School
Danbury	Roberts Avenue School
