CMT and CAPT Science Student Demographic Data Verification (SDDV) System Temporarily Shut Down

The 2015 CMT and CAPT Science Student Demographic Data Verification (SDDV) system has been temporarily shut down until further notice. This was necessary due to various technical issues within the system. District staff involved in SDDV reviews should discontinue these efforts until the system is operational again. There will be an extension beyond May 28, 2015, for districts to complete the SDDV review, although the revised deadline is not known at this time. Thank you for all of your efforts and patience.

Please e-mail Jeff Greig (jeff.greig@ct.gov) if you have specific questions or concerns about the 2015 CMT and CAPT SDDV review.

As a reminder, Smarter Balanced Assessment data is being maintained through the Public School Information System (PSIS), specifically the Registration Module.
